

BRENDA WEEMS BENNISON SCHOLARSHIP IN GRADUATE STUDIES

The Brenda Weems Bennison Memorial Scholarship in Graduate Studies provides support for the awardee's participation in an off-campus training program, specialized course, or organized research experience. Selection of the awardee is based on academic qualifications and the relevance of the proposed off-campus experience to the applicant's educational and research goals. Award: Up to $1,000

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION: October 1

Please electronically submit the completed application and supporting materials to rsherrod@bio.fsu.edu

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION:

Name _____ Date _____
Local Address _____ SS# _____
_____ Local Telephone _____
Permanent Address _____ E-mail _____
_____ Permanent phone _____

ACADEMIC INFORMATION:

Academic status: Graduate year _____ Expected date of degree _____ Please attach a copy of your CV.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION:

Please append a complete listing of anticipated expenses associated with your participation in the off-campus research experience or training program for which you are applying.

COURSE/TRAINING PROGRAM THAT YOU WISH TO ATTEND (OR HAVE ATTENDED):

Name of Program: _____

Location: _____

Dates of Program: _____

Please attach an official description or announcement of the course, field experience, or training program that the scholarship will support.

CANDIDATE'S STATEMENT:

GRADUATES: Attach a brief statement (no more than two typed pages) summarizing your research program and describing how this particular off-campus experience will contribute to your research and to your ultimate career goals.

SUPPORTING LETTER:

Name of FSU major professor who will write your supporting letter: _____

[Applicants should request a letter from their major professor detailing how participation in this field experience, course, or training program will contribute to the student's research program.]

Please ask that the letter be sent electronically to rsherrod@bio.fsu.edu.